

Pinoy Pilgrim Supports Headway School for Giftedness

Contributed by Administrator
Last Updated Tuesday, 30 June 2009

The Headway School for Giftedness (HSG) held a program entitled “Pamaskong Harana ng Kapayapaan”, an annual concert to showcase the various talents of the students at Cine Adarna (U.P. Film Institute) at the University of the Philippines – Diliman last December 19, 2008. Pinoy Pilgrim Global Foundation Inc (PPGFI) co-sponsored the event.

PPGFI is actively searching for profoundly gifted Filipino children (Geniuses) to achieve its mission to promote the greatness of the Filipino people at a Global Stage.

In Photo: Maria Luz B. Estudillo, Founder/Directress of HSG, Carlo F. de Leon, Executive Director of PPGFI.

“Pamaskong Harana ng Kapayapaan”

Ang Pamaskong Harana ng Kapayapaan ay isang selebrasyon ng ating mayamang tradisyon tuwing kapaskuhan. Ibinabahagi namin ang realidad at katotohanan ng buhay ng mga Pilipino sa mga magaaral ng Headway School. At Muling nagbibigay ng pagasa sa pamamagitan ng mga magigiliw na awitin nagsasaad ng mensahe ng kapayapaan para sa ating pamilya at sa buong mundo.

The concert presentation was directed and choreographed by the Tag-ani Performing Arts Society, Inc., a professional group of various performing arts organizations founded by Mrs. Marilie Ilagan who is a former committee member of the National Commission for Dramatic Arts.